

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. This does not serve the interests of democracy.

Media ownership rules should be strengthened not weakened. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
Julie Norman